

Our Mission

We exist to improve the emotional and physical wellbeing of anyone, and everyone affected by dementia - be that the person with dementia, their family and friends, or their caregivers. Driven by our own experiences, we're on a mission to ensure dementia advice, support and community are not only easily accessible, but provide an enriching and uplifting experience during difficult times.

